Investing in Your Career

ASBO International and MetLife are committed to supporting continued professional development and networking opportunities of emerging leaders in school business management through the Bridges to the Future Scholarships.

20 Scholarships to the 2012 Annual Meeting & Expo

Recipients receive $2,000 to cover the registration fee and help defray travel expenses to ASBO International's Annual Meeting & Expo (AM&E) in Phoenix, Arizona, October 12-15, 2012—the premier professional development event for school business management professionals.

Recipients also attend a customized pre-conference workshop and luncheon on Friday, October 12, 2012, where they have the opportunity to make contacts, share challenges, and exchange ideas with colleagues.

Program Eligibility

- Applicant must be a school business official in the profession for five years or less as of June 1, 2012. This includes present position and positions in previous school districts.
- Applicant must be a member of ASBO International at the time the scholarship application is submitted.
- Applicant may be a school business official from finance and accounting, purchasing, food service/nutrition, risk management, transportation, facilities, and other positions that fall under the school business office purview.
- The Bridges to the Future Scholarship may be earned only once and may not be combined with another ASBO International offer to attend the Annual Meeting.

*"The networking opportunities are endless...
It's good to know that school business officials from all over face the same challenges you do."*
