

High School Activity Report

June 2013

Senior Awards Ceremony: What a way to be honored; the graduating seniors of ECTS sure were at this year's senior awards night. The Little Theatre was busting from the seams with well over 1000 guests to recognize their accomplishments.

On Wednesday, May 29th 231 seniors received their ECTS certificates of Completion. In addition to their certificates, each senior was draped with a green cord. This cord acknowledges the students as graduates from ECTS during the Home School graduation ceremony.

Mr. Tarasovitch extends his sincere gratitude to the graduation committee and all the Home School personnel for making this evening truly a night to remember!

Deserving Recognition: Congratulations to Riley Colvin from the Automotive Technologies Program, he is the recipient of a $5,000 AYES JFS scholarship representing the Honda manufacturing group. This scholarship is a national scholarship and only one is awarded from each manufacturing agency.

Riley Colvin is a graduate from our Automotive Technology career pathway and the Fort LeBoeuf School District.

Last Day for Students and Teachers:

Tuesday, June 4th was the last day for the Erie County Technical School students. They day was filled with lab activities and parties that celebrated another successful year.

Wednesday, June 5th was the final day for the instructional staff. Once again, the ECTS family shared in a closing luncheon that included NOCTI program recognitions and service milestones.
