

RCTC Report

December 14, 2022

PA State Inspection started a new class December 5 with 18 students.

During the months of November and part of December there have been 10 emissions test takers.

CDL ran classes in November and are currently running a December class with a total of 18 students.

Industrial Electricity I is finishing their class for Term II with all 16 students passing the class.